

I fimly oppose HR4026.
If the radio giants are nervous about the competition, they should increase the value of their product.

Should American tax dollars be used for National Security or spent on supporting media supergiants such as Clear Channerl Worldwide in their attempt to de-rail satelllite radio?

Respectfully submitted,

Dan